

CLEAN SHOP OF ALL CUT MEATS

Burglars Enter Hill Bros. Shop; Four Other Places Robbed

Five burglaries were committed in Ogden last night according to reports that were telephoned to police headquarters this morning.

Burglars took a pane of glass from a window at the Hill Bros. butcher shop, 616 Twenty-fourth street and left with all of the cut meat in the showcase consisting of steaks, chops, roasts and sausages. The burglars took nothing else though there was money in the cash register.

Burglars entered the tailor shop of John E. Bolstad, 320 Twenty-fourth street last night and stole a bolt of cloth consisting of five yards of blue serge suiting. Entrance was gained by breaking in through a rear window.

Skaggs store, 2275 Washington avenue was also entered last night by burglars who evidently took their time in getting in. They cut a hole through the rear door just above the bolt that secured the door, loosened the bolt and opened the door. It has not been determined what they stole, according to the clerk, who pointed out that an invoice would be necessary to discover if any groceries were stolen.

The mill of the Ogden Fixture company, rear of 145 Twenty-fourth street was entered last night by breaking in through a rear window and approximately 35 tools of various kinds were stolen.

Burglars also entered the Ogden Macaroni factory, 1556 Washington avenue and stole a number of tools.

Detectives W. A. Jones and Robert H. Chambers investigated the various burglaries today and said that the work looked like that of either drug addicts or of Mexicans.

Burglars also entered the store owned by J. L. Reed, 1830 Washington avenue, last night and stole a few wrenches, a ten-piece set of bits and a small emery wheel. Entrance was gained by breaking in through a rear window.

MOVIES STAY IN CALIFORNIA

Adolph Zukor Dealers Taylor Scandal Not to Affect Pictures

That the motion picture producers operating studios at Hollywood, Cal., have no intention of moving their present equipment to eastern points, due to the Taylor murder scandal, was the opinion expressed in Ogden Thursday afternoon by Adolph Zukor, president of the Famous Players-Lasky corporation. Mr. Zukor is en route east to New York City after having inspected the various property holdings of his company on the coast.

Mr. Zukor was accompanied by E. R. Kent, general manager of the company. Relative to the possibilities of moving, Mr. Zukor said: "We have our large studios at Hollywood with a great amount of capital invested. If we moved it would result in a big loss. None of the companies, as near as I can learn, is going to abandon property there. Some criticism of the industry has been made as the result of the Taylor murder, but the industry is not responsible for the murder of the man. We are going to continue producing at Hollywood as well as at the studios on Long Island. Our company's plans for the future are for bigger and greater pictures. It is not a question of quantity, but quality. The pictures must have the best directors and the

SMOKER FIXED AT FIGHT CLUB

Pres. Jim Downing to Invite Some of His Friends for a "Looksee"

The first of a series of smokers, for the members of the Wasatch Athletic club and their friends, will be staged in the arena at the club Saturday evening, commencing at 8:30 o'clock sharp. President Jim Downing announced today that more than 500 invitations to prominent business men of Ogden were mailed Thursday and a record crowd is expected to be in attendance.

Boxing and wrestling will be featured. Frankie Dairren, welterweight boxing champion of Utah, will be one of the main attractions. Les Davis, promising middleweight boxer, Jim Downing and others will take part in the entertainment.

Several speakers will be on hand with pointed remarks to make. At the conclusion of the smoker, the visitors will be conducted through the building. The swimming pool, steam room, showers, gymnasium, and other facilities of the building will be open to inspection.

Under the present plan, smokers of this nature are held once a month, at which time, prominent men will be invited to attend. The membership at the club is increasing daily. President Downing announced that the selection of the officials expect to have a membership of 600.

best cast obtainable. It may be necessary to have one star or even six stars, but the best must be put into the pictures. The selection of the picture is made, then the locale of the picture is selected and the company sent there. The public wants the big pictures and will pay for them, and will not accept inferior pictures at any price."

SCOUT PRESIDENT LAUDS OGDEN WORK

Colin H. Livingstone, president of the Boy Scouts of America, and one of the most influential bankers in America, in a letter to G. A. Goates, scout executive of the Ogden council, praised the program adopted for the twenty-fifth anniversary of scouting in Ogden. In his communication, President Livingstone, said in part:

"I am very pleased to receive a copy of the commemorative circular you issued in connection with the annual meeting of the Boy Scouts this month. The get-up of the circular was fine in every way and would encourage not only the boys themselves, but their leaders. The presenting of the Boy Scout program in this efficient manner does a lot to help promote the Boy Scout idea everywhere. Any piece of literature or any publication that is so good in itself and contains so many ideas that on one wants to throw away is of permanent value."

I want to commend you on the spirit and efficiency which the work is being carried on in Ogden and to commend the president of your council, its members and your leaders for the very fine showing Ogden is making among the cities of the country in developing the program of Scouting. Not a small share of this honor is yours."

MARKETING TOPIC OF EXPERTS TALK

Dr. W. L. Wanlass, specialist in the marketing of farm products, was to speak on co-operative marketing as it applies to farmers at a joint meeting of the Riverdale, Clinton, and Roy Farm bureaus at Roy this afternoon. Dr. Wanlass is director of the school of commerce at the Utah Agricultural college.

Recently he delivered an address at the federal building to representatives of the various farm bureaus in the county on the subject of co-operative marketing discussing that subject along broad lines and paying particular attention to the fundamental principles and their application to co-operative marketing.

He was to have spoken on the more concrete phases of the subject and its effects on farmers at the meeting today.

"COOPERATION" IS RECTOR'S SUBJECT

The Rev. John W. Hyslop, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Ogden chapter of the American Association of Bridge Builders at the Weber club today. He addressed the club on "Cooperation."

"Protests entered against the steel bridges which are to be constructed to preserve the natural beauty of the canyon. Steps taken by this club and other clubs of the city however may prove futile, local engineers believe, as the contract for the bridges has been let, bonds have been filed and other details have been completed.

Kroft and Bundy of Ogden, contractors, awarded the job, are awaiting orders from the state to start work on the two bridges.
